Royal Seduction Jennifer Blake

1983 Fawcett Columbine BCE, 407 pages. A sensuous new romance by the best selling author of Embrace and Conquer. In the 1840s, red-haired and emerald-eyed Angeline Fortin lives a chaste life with her aunt in the countryside near New Orleans. But a dashing stranger, Prince Rolfe of Ruthenia, will change all that when they meet at a ball and he mistakes her for her bolder cousin Claire. Desperate to find his brother's murderer, he hopes to seduce the truth from the woman he believes witnessed the crime. Within hours, Angeline is abducted by his guards and taken to his bedchamber, where her innocence is lost forever. And until she leads Rolfe to Claire, she will be his prisoner, forced to submit to his passionate wishes. As they pursue Claire through Texas, a land teeming with outlaws, Rolfe is gravely wounded by an assassin who may be one of his handpicked men. Angeline, horrified by this treachery, tenderly nurses him back to health and discovers that she is not entirely unwilling to be his captive...for life. But as they come closer to their goal, Rolfe's secret enemy prepares to strike once more...
