To awaken to the preponderance of oneness, to awaken to the integrity of harmony, to awaken to the completeness of unity – these are our ultimate reasons for being. In order to attain the wisdom (insight and understanding) that is needed, one must first understand the nature of the universe (wherein mindfulness and lucid living are what knowingly contribute to transcendence). It becomes in answering several questions of great importance, while knowing and believing that we are all connected, that the transformative process can begin.
