The 13 Best Herbs to Grow On Your Kitchen Window

Have you seen the prices of the jarred herbs on your grocer's shelf? Shocking, isn't it? Many herbs can be grown right inside your kitchen, ready for harvesting and use with tonight's dinner. There aren't any price tags on them either! Even if you only have a "black thumb," you can be successful with these herbs. By following these simple guidelines, you will be very pleased to discover that you had a hidden talent for growing all along. While you are laboring over the drudgery of washing your pots and pans, you can look up and be comforted by your "little girls" thriving and happy to have you around. They are lovely and lovingly delicious! Some culinary suggestions will be made here, but there is no reason why you can't get a little more creative, once you and your girls become good kitchen friends.
