Wizards University was supposed to be fun...

Unfortunately, Ashley is the odd one out. While the rest of the students, even the professors, are obsessed with battle magic and the art of dueling, Ashley just wants to perfect her Summoning. On top of that, she's awful at dueling!

Now, she needs to win at least one duel to pass her second year but it's not happening. She only has one option: attempt the most complicated and dangerous summoning she's ever heard of, and get some help... from a demon lord! It's not wise, it's not even safe, but it may be her only option.

Can she even get the spell to work?
