My Little Black Book: Torn by Two Worlds (Endless Days of Freedom) Angus Robbie Mackay

A collection of poetry and photographs by Angus Robbie Mackay, chef and traveller, discovered in his journals after his early demise at the age of forty in California. He wrote of love, loss, nostalgia for home, legends, myths and long forgotten ideas; whose words so poignant made folk think, smile and even feel a little wiser, knowing not why those words though brilliant, not easily understood, did resonate so powerfully all the same.
