Scottish Literature Since 1707 (Longman Literature in English) Marshall Walker

Marshall Walker's lively and readable account of the highs and lows of Scottish literature from this important date to the present addresses the important themes of democracy, power and nationhood. Disposing of stereotypical ideas about Scotland and the Scots, this fresh approach to Scottish literature provides a critical interpretation of its distinctive style and presents the reader with an informative introduction to Scottish culture. Coverage includes the Scottish enlightenment and the world of Boswell and David Hume to the 'Scottish Renaissance', associated with Hugh MacDiarmid.

Developments in the contemporary literary scene include John McGrath's theatre Company and the fiction and poetry of Alastair Gray and Ian Crichton Smith. Particular attention is given to the work of Scottish women writers such as Lady Grizel Baillie and Liz Lochhead, who have been much neglected in previous literature.
