Isabella, Queen Without a Conscience Rachel Bard

A historical novel about the enigmatic Isabella of Angoulême, queen of King John of England. In her day she was called a Jezebel, a sorceress, an adulteress. With her second husband, Hugh de Lusignan, she was accused of trying to assassinate the King of France. How much was true? In this novel, thanks to new research, you'll meet the real Isabella, prey to strong passions and ambitions, aware of the power of her beauty, willing to dare all in order to be and be seen as a queen. You'll relive the turbulent twelfth and thirteenth centuries when France and England were struggling for control of western France. And you'll become intimately acquainted with the fascinating and beautiful Isabella.
