I Am Partisan: Part 1: A Hero's Genesis (Volume 1) Kyle J Alcott

Following an attack in Afghanistan that nearly took his life, Eli Baker returns to the United States a changed man. As he struggles to come to grips with his debilitating injuries and the effects his condition has on his family, President Richard Ashton and billionaire industrialist Howard Jennings offer him the ICRAAS bio-suit and a whole new beginning. This means Baker must leave his family believing he's dead and assume the role of Partisan, a biologically advanced soldier gifted with advanced weaponry who operates outside the rules of engagement and political posturing limiting the U.S. military. Partisan is quickly tested when Islamic extremists take a U.S. senator and his teenage daughter hostage during a diplomatic visit to the Philippines. Partisan displays his power with brutal effectiveness for the world to see but soon learns that while the ICRAAS suit will heal his body and endue him with preternatural strength and abilities, it does nothing to heal the unseen scars created by the trauma and loss that follows him.
