Writing National Histories: Western Europe Since 1800

This book examines comparatively how the writing of history by individuals and groups, historians, politicians and journalists has been used to "legitimate" the nation-state against socialist, communist and catholic internationalism in the modern era. Covering the whole of Western Europe, the book includes discussion of:

- * history as legitimation in post-revolutionary France
- * unity and confederation in the Italian Risorgimento
- * German historians as critics of Prussian conservatism
- * right-wing history writing in France between the wars
- * British historiography from Macauley to Trevelyan
- * the search for national identity in the reunified Germany.
