UN-SOON KIM's odyssey begins in a farm in South Korea. When she is 13 years old, she is cast out for being a Christian. From there, a moving saga begins. This is an immigration story as it was meant to be. A true account of a woman, spanning a half a century - crossing two continents - who maintains her idealism of the immigrant life, with all of its challenges, as faced by a single, Korean mother. "Great Light Will Shine" is the remarkable and inspiring story of this courageous woman/mother who overcomes the statistical improbability. Have a box of tissues near by...
