The Fall from Grace (Dust and Silence Book 3) L.R. Rüddek

This is the third book in the 'Dust and Silence' series.

Monsters, magic, torment, death, and agony all have combined to make Felsland a place of never-ending nightmares. Its King sits upon his throne and continues his terrible schemes. The elves have vanished, the Aurai have fallen, the mages are under siege, and the Orlorians are being pushed back across the plains. The white dust has made Semias invincible. Now, his court mage has given him the means to control his citizens. They would follow their King into death, despite the atrocities he would have them commit along the way. Can the war machine be stopped? Can Semias' kingdom be healed? How long will it be until every land falls under the banners of the god-king?

In Felsland, some secrets are worth dying for, but those who make the sacrifice are not always given the choice...
