It was risky, but he was determined to get to her...

At 18, Beth and Liam don't know much about the world, but they know one thing for sure: they love each other, and that love is stronger than anything. They might be young, but they're sure that they'll be together forever. Even if she goes to college and he stays home to help his drunk, woman-hating father run the family business, they'll end up together.

Except things don't always go as planned, and when Liam breaks up with Beth for reasons he thinks are selfless, it creates a rift between them that can never be filled. For five years, they long for each other, neither finding anything to replace the love they once had.

They're both resigned to living their lives loveless and alone when fate throws them together at Liam's MMA match, and all those old feelings and promises are reignited. But can Beth trust Liam not to break her heart again? Can Liam prove that he's worth another chance? Will love win out in the end – or are some loves doomed from the start?

WARNING! This ebook contains super hot scenes that are explicit and don't leave much to the imagination. ADULTS ONLY! Discretion is advised!
