Abu Bakr once said, "Without knowledge action is useless and knowledge without action is futile." In this fast paced age, we need concise and pragmatic answers to our tough questions; answers that do not vary from moment to moment or situation to situation.

Encapsulated in the pages of this book you will experience the same truths that you heard the "gray heads" talk about; truths that were gleaned from an unchangeable and all encompassing source, the Word of God.

We as a nation and a people stand on the precipice of change, the dawn of a new era. Choose wisely what you embrace and hold up as truth.
