More than 2,500 questions on everything imaginable! With inquiries presented in various formats these questions are designed to stimulate conversations, break the ice, open doors, create verbal momentum, and keep the dialogue flowing. At times we've all had challenges trying to jump-start a conversation... those awkward moments at a lunch, dinner party, waiting for a meeting to begin, riding in the car, on a first date, and in particular with family, co-workers and friends. Therefore, we have created this multipurpose question book which is designed to get people talking in order to bring people back to the simple art of conversing, listening, and enjoying one another while enriching relationships. Learn about others as they learn about you. It's a fun and revealing participation book that shares interests while getting to know others better than you ever thought possible. Find Mr. Right or discover new friends. What do you really have in common with someone? Do you know them as well as you think? Which of these old adages do you believe in, "Birds of a feather flock together" or "Opposites attract"? Something for everyone. Entertainment for all ages and family-oriented fun! Questions are presented in a tasteful non-offensive manner minus anything deemed vulgar or obscene. It even contains a religious section. It can be played with either an entire group of people or else just two participants ... anywhere that people gather and enjoy the popular pastime of conversation. Tailor questions to your own tastes. If you read a question and would prefer to change the options to meet your own needs then feel free. There are no hard and fast rules except for this one... HAVE FUN!
