The year 1907 finds Heather and Brenton Emery celebrating seven years of blissful marriage. They are anything but the average couple. The son of Hungarian immigrants, Brenton owns and manages a thriving, top-notch Saratoga Springs hotel and vaudeville pavilion with his partner-wife Heather. She's an entrepreneur in her own right. Blessed with a keen business sense, she's made millions of dollars in her undertakings. But they soon learn even the best marriages have problems, and their commitment to each other is sorely tested. A charismatic billionaire makes Heather an offer she simply can't refuse. Given the opportunity to spread her wings thousands of miles away from home, she must choose between marriage and her career. Her choice stuns Brenton. Will the handsome and brilliant San Francisco architect Heather joins forces with succeed in rendering the coup de grace on Heather's now tenuous marriage? To further complicate matters, Brenton's secretary is astute and alluring. Heather's plans fit her agenda nicely. Brenton is faced with the question: How far can a business friendship stretch before it is no longer just friendship? The Diamond Legacy is a romance saga packed with bold, colorful characters and surprising twists that will tear at your heartstrings. Can Brenton's and Heather's love for each other rise above all odds and endure, or is love sometimes not enough?
