How far would you be willing to go to write the perfect bondage story?

That was the question Tess asked herself when she started running out of ideas for her next book, and the answer she came up with even shocked William, her Master. With the help of some of his friends, she wanted to experience some genuine damsel in distress situations, with absolutely no limits in place.

Putting herself under the control of the toughest and most creative Dom's around was a daunting prospect, but once she started there was no going back. Bondage, submission, obedience, and discipline were things she took for granted under Master William's care, but now the stakes were raised higher than she'd imagined possible, especially when things began spiraling out of control.

This was her ultimate writer's fantasy, though, so it should be loads of fun, right? After all, what could possibly go wrong?
