The Plaything: Part One Mirah Shell

When cash-strapped college student Sadie interviews for a job with billionaire Marc Rothko and his wife Grace, she isn't sure what to expect. There's more to the job than being Marc's personal assistant, however- his wife Grace makes it clear that Sadie's job will be to serve Marc whenever and however they command her to, no matter how humiliating the demand, while Grace watches to be sure Sadie meets her husband's high expectations and unusual tastes.

Sadie, inexperienced and unsure, agrees to an arrangement that will truly test her limits, pushing her beyond all of the boundaries she thought she had as Marc makes her into the ultimate plaything, dominating her entirely before showing his new toy off to his friends!
