Trapped with a drunken and humiliating father all her life, twenty year old Sadie is livid when the callous man trades her for a lost bet. She had done nothing less than take care of him and the farm ever since her mother left them when she was nine, and now she's been sold like a sack of meal.

She finds herself in a large ranch run by two men, who in contrast to her abusive father, are both kind and caring towards her, and most of all appreciative of her work. Strange as it may seem, Sadie begins to feel drawn toward the rancher, Bronston, and his right-hand man, Jack. Could life finally have some meaning for her... at long last?
