The struggle we see in a lot of companies is a never ending one that 65% of American workers have to either put up with or run away from every day.

Workplace bullying is a real and overwhelming problem for a lot of workers that are being targeted on a daily basis by one or more of these abusive, insecure, narcissistic people.

The emotional train wreck this bullying causes is devastating to the victim and causes major health problems as well if left to continue.

This book is designed to give the reader all the information needed to learn about, recognize and stop the bullying, verbal abuse and harassment they are going through in their workplace..
