The King really is coming. He came as a child, he will come again as the ultimate victor, and he is coming now. The Advent season is a reminder of this reality. With a gentle ferocity, this collection of Advent readings and prayers compels us to acknowledge the coming King and to bow our knee. So come and bow before him. Find rest and peace only he can give. Worship him, awestruck by his humility and might. And keep watch as we long for him to come again.
